When the Revolunon was in embryo, in progress, in peril, in full success, the heroes who scood at the cradle of n important positions, and the spirit of pure ntriotism took pride in calling those unflinchng heroes to the Chief Magistracy of the naion until the race of Washingtone and Adams and Jeffersons were each honored in their urn, for their devotion to the principles on which the Government was founded.

So will it ever be, and the spirit that would lo otherwise bodes no good to the Republican novement. If nonsense from the brain of ome unknown writer who dates his silly effuions at Washington, is to be taken as the Pub ic sentiment of the nation, and the great upising sentiment of Freedom has lost its power o resist sorcery, then we may expect that Be-vard and Chase, either of which would inspire spirit that would rock the North as with empest, will be set aside, and a Fremont, who o be sure is a man of mark, and has a pecuiar form of heroism in his character, but yet, s not known to be of us in his sentiments, and s currently reported to be a slaveholder, is to e but in their place, then we fear that the ause of Freedom will suffer a shock, that will efeat it for the present, and at all events damge the reputation of our champions for conistency, to such an extent that the movement will reel under the paralysis for long years to Dowagiac, Mich., March 11, 1856, J. A. RHODES, Esq., : Dear Sir—As I took your J. A. RHODES, Esq.,: Dear Sir.—As I took your medicine to sell on consignment, "no cure no psy," I take the pleasure in stating its effects is reported to me by three brothers who live in this place, and their testimony is a fair specimen of all I have rectived:

W. S. Conklik told me—"I had taken nine bottles of Christie's Ague Belsum, and continually run dows while using it until my lungs and liver were Congested to that degree that blood discharged from my mouth and how els, so that all thought it would be impossible for me to live through smother chill. The dectors too did all they could for me, but thought I must die. Nothing did me any good until I got Rhodes Fever and Ague Cure which at onco relieved me of the discress and nausea at my stomach and pain in my bowels, and produced a permanent cure in a short time."

H. M. Conklin, says: "I had been taking medicale of as good a doctor as we have in our county, and taken only quantity of quinine and specifics without any good the of RHODES FEVER AND AGUE CURE, which affected a permanent cure by using two thirds of a bottle."

S. M. Conribin was not here, but both the other brothicine to both the same as H. M's. I sold the melicine to both the same day, and the cure was as epecty from the same small quantity, and I might so specify.

Yours with respect, A. HUNTINGTON

The above speaks for itself. Good proof as it is, it is on the text tentor than the vast number of like certificates I have already published and the still greater amount that it continually pouring in to me.

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to Cautiou the Public in these words:

"I notice one firm who have taken one of me eral circulars substituted."

One thing more. Last year I had occasion to Cautiou the Public in these words:—
"I notice one firm who have taken one of my general circulars substituted the name of their nostrum for my medicine, and then with braren insudence cud their pamphlet with the exchanation.—Let the proprietor of any other medicine say as much if he darea. See.

Now I take pleasure in saving that the Caution referred to the same "Dr. Christie's ague Balsam" that is mentioned in the above certificate.

There are several industrious people who are applying to their poisonous track all that I publish about my fever and Agan Cure, or Antidote to Malaria, except the Certificates of Gures, and the Certificate of the Chemist Dr. James R. Chilton of N. Y. in fivor of its perfectly Harnless Character, which is attached to every bottle.—These will always severe to distinguished my medicine from initimations JAMES A. RHODES Proprietor.
